Information

Observe the world around us via 5 senses

Current events – The NEWS (MSM)

- Disclaimer

- Information leads to knowledge.
- Knowledge is the beginning of Wisdom
- Proverbs 9:10 states “The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.”
- Disclaimer – Where do you go for INFORMATION as it’s related to Current Events/News
- Discernment – In the Bible, discernment is the ability to distinguish between truth and error, right and wrong, and to make moral judgments. It's also the ability to assess the spiritual and moral status of people, groups, and movements. The Bible describes discernment as a gift of the Spirit and a responsibility of Christians
- Matthew 7:15-20 - Jesus warns that false prophets will appear harmless and innocent but are actually dangerous. He says, "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits".

BILDERBERG MEETINGS

THE TRILATERAL COMMISSION

Gatekeepers, Watchmen

Decision makers on what gets in or out.

- The gatekeepers were assigned to the entrances to the temple and their task was simple—they had to keep out whoever or whatever was unclean. Like the watchmen, they would assume at least some of the responsibility were they to allow into the temple a person or even an animal that was forbidden.
- News gatekeepers, sources of news and keep out whatever is not the approved narrative
- The watchman's position is at the watchtower day and night. The gatekeeper's position is at the gate. The watchman's weapon is the trumpet while the gatekeeper has weapons to attack the enemy and to defend the city.
- The News watchmen control the outlets of information like print, radio, TV even education institutions and corporate boards and attack or defend the narrative.

PRINT

Oldest surviving full text of the New Testament 325-360 CE

- The printing press is a device that allows for the mass production of uniform printed matter, mainly text in the form of books, pamphlets and newspapers.
- Created in China, the printing press revolutionized society there before being further developed in Europe in the 15th Century by Johannes Gutenberg and his invention of the Gutenberg press
- In 1452, Gutenberg printed a Bible. It's estimated he printed 180 copies of the 1,300-paged Gutenberg Bible.
- The New-England Courant (Boston's first independent newspaper), launched, Benjamin Franklin writing career
- 1931-1965 Never argue (quarrel) with a man who buys ink by the barrel (gallon).
- In 1888, Sears issued his first catalog, a thin mailer that featured only watches and jewelry. (Power of Advertisements)

Looking back, it's clear that while COVID was real enough, everything that accompanied it – including its origin, severity, death rates, and “treatments,” were fabricated, much of it by the Democrats and their allies in the bureaucracy and the media in order to manipulate the election.

"I'M AN EXPERT ON MENTAL HEALTH AND FOOD DISORDERS."
...SAYS THE OBESE MAN WHO THINKS HE'S A WOMAN.

Benjamin Franklin was a Founding Father, a member of the Second Continental Congress, and a delegate to the Constitutional Convention. He helped draft the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

- Freedom of speech is a principal pillar of a free government: This quote appears in an essay written by Franklin in 1737.
- Without freedom of thought, there can be no such thing as wisdom, and no such thing as public liberty without freedom of speech.
- If all printers were determined not to print anything till they were sure it would offend nobody, there would be very little printed.
- It is unreasonable to imagine that printers approve of everything they print.
- A Principle among Printers is that when Truth has fair Play, it will always prevail over Falsehood.

Telegraphy without wires.

- The first radio broadcast to the public was on December 24, 1906
- “Fireside Chats” were an influential series of radio broadcasts in which Franklin D. Roosevelt, the 32nd President, utilized the medium to present his programs and ideas directly to the public and thereby redefined the relationship between the President and the American people.
- Electronic television was first successfully demonstrated in San Francisco on Sept. 7, 1927
- The first-ever televised debate between presidential candidates, Nixon and Kennedy, was held on September 26, 1960. An estimated total of sixty to seventy million viewers watched the first and the successive debates, which came to be known as “the Great Debates.”
- The television exploded at a greater than exponential growth rate from 1950 to the 1970s. This growth propelled the television to becoming the throne of the living room.
- President Lyndon B. Johnson is claimed by some to have said, "If I've lost Cronkite ('the most trusted man in America'), I've lost Middle America."

The Elite, The Cabal, The Deep State

Who are they? Gatekeepers? Watchmen? Our betters?

“Pay no attention to the man behind the curtain”

- We still do not know who shot JFK or why?
- LBJ and the Great Society beholden to the state and WARS
- What is the business of WAR? Is there such a thing?
- RFK (eradicate poverty) and MLK (equality) were both shot, why?
- Nixon reelected in a landslide was “run out of town,” by whom?
- Regan was shot at and was despised by the “insiders” who?
- Exponential growth of government, big Pharma, Military Industrial Complex, etc.
- Trump - is the antithesis of their inside power, trying to kill him or sabotage his vision to liberate America from the "cabal”
- With the power of print, radio, TV and Social Media, “they” can control the narrative and thus the information we use to make informed decisions.
- Trump represented an existential threat to this power trifecta – Government, Media and Academy want him silenced.

The Public Square are spaces for markets, political events, and public celebrations, currently protected as Free Speech.

- Twitter was launched in 2006 as a social media site that took off rapidly as the town hall center for discussing open ideas, much like Public squares in ancient Rome were central to social life and civic engagement.
- Twitter is not a “public square” but a private company sold out to the highest bidder (controlling interest from Government, Media, and Academia)
- Still as the sitting USA President, Trump was banned from Twitter along with 70,000 others not considered "Acceptable" claiming to protect us from misinformation and depriving million of us in exercising our God given ability to think for ourselves.
- Twitter taken over by tech-billionaire Elon Musk at the end of October 2022. As the company's new CEO, Musk reinstated numerous Twitter accounts that had previously been banned from the platform.
- Musk began rebranding the social media platform in July 2023 and replaced the iconic blue bird logo with a black and white "X"
- Twitter has 600 million monthly active users as of 2024. More than 245 million people worldwide use Twitter daily. 60.9% of Twitter users are men, while 39.1% are Women as of 2024. Most of Twitter's audience (36.6%) belongs to the 25 to 34 age group. The US has the largest proportion of X users, with 21.09% of the total.

Trump descends the escalator and announces his candidacy June 16, 2015

- He picked a side and has been hated by Government, Media and Academia ever since.
- When Trump announced his presidential campaign in 2015, he had 2.98 million Twitter followers; his follower count thereafter increased rapidly.
 - The @realDonaldTrump handle had amassed 88.7 million followers by the time Twitter suspended it in January 2021
- Nine months after being expelled from social media, Pres Trump said he's launching a new media company with its own social media platform.

Truth Social

Trump says his goal in launching the Trump Media & Technology Group (TMTG) and its “Truth Social” app is to create a rival to the Big Tech companies and protect free speech.

- The site advertised its mission statement as “fighting cancel culture, promoting common sense, defending free speech, challenging social media monopolies, and creating a true marketplace of ideas.”
- The deal, approved by the shareholders, has an initial enterprise value, a measure that takes into account a company’s total debts and assets, of $875 million, according to the release.
- March 2024 listed on NASDAQ with $105M in Proceeds and over $350M in Cash on the Balance Sheet
- July 2024 Trump Media & Technology Group Corp. Joins Russell 1000 and Russell 3000 Indexes
- The mission of TMTG is to end Big Tech's assault on free speech by opening up the Internet and giving people their voices back. TMTG operates Truth Social, a social media platform established as a safe harbor for free expression amid increasingly harsh censorship by Big Tech corporations
